

TEST RESULTS – The Values and principles of the UK and What is the UK?

1. Is the statement below TRUE or FALSE? The UK offers citizens and permanent residents of the UK a right to a fair trial and a right to join in the election of a government.

- True
- False

When you become a permanent resident or citizen of the UK you are expected to respect the responsibilities and freedoms shared by all those living in the UK. In return, the UK offers its citizens certain freedoms and rights, including a right to a fair trial and a right to join in the election of a government.

2. Which of the following statements is correct?

- Passing the Life in the UK test is part of demonstrating that you are ready to become a permanent migrant to the UK.
- Passing the Life in the UK test fully demonstrates that you are ready to become a permanent migrant to the UK.
- Passing the Life in the UK test is only part of demonstrating that you are ready to become a permanent migrant to the UK. You must also be able to speak and read English to a set level.

3. Which of the following statements is correct?

- You can only take the Life in the UK test at a registered and approved Life in the UK test centre.
- You can choose to take the Life in the UK test either online or at a registered and approved Life in the UK test centre.

You can only take the test at a registered and approved Life in the UK test centre. You should not take your test at any other establishment as the Home Office will only accept certificates from registered test centres.

4. Is the statement below TRUE or FALSE? If you wish to be a permanent resident or citizen of the UK, you should respect people's rights to their own opinions.

- True
- False

There are responsibilities and freedoms which are shared by all those living in the UK, including respecting the rights of others and the right to their own opinion.

5. Which of the following statements is correct?

- The British welcome anyone into their society.
- The British welcome those seeking to make a positive contribution to their society.

We welcome those seeking to make a positive contribution to our society.

6. Which of the following statements is correct?

- The United Kingdom consists of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales.
- The United Kingdom consists of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland.

The UK is made up of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. The rest of Ireland is an independent country.

7. Is the statement below TRUE or FALSE? 'Great Britain' and 'the United Kingdom' have the same meaning.

- True
- False

The official name of the country is the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland. 'Great Britain' refers only to England, Scotland and Wales, not to Northern Ireland. The words 'Britain', 'British Isles' or 'British', however, are used in this book to refer to everyone in the UK.

8. Which of the following statements is correct?

- British values are protected by the government.
- British values are protected by the law, customs and expectations.

British society is based on fundamental values and principles, which all those living in the UK should respect and support. They are based on history and traditions and are protected by law, customs and expectations.

9. Choose TWO options from the list below. Why is the information in the handbook useful?

- It helps integration into our society and local communities
- It broadens knowledge of the culture, laws and history of the UK
- It is not useful
- It teaches you everything about British history

This handbook is designed to support you in your preparation. It will help you to integrate into society and play a full role in your local community. It will also help ensure that you have a broad general knowledge of the culture, laws and history of the UK.

10. To apply to become a permanent resident or citizen of the UK, you will need to be able to do which TWO of the following?

- Speak and read English
- Speak Welsh
- Have a good understanding of life in the UK
- Speak more than one language

To apply to become a permanent resident or citizen of the UK, you will need to: • Speak and read English • Have a good understanding of life in the UK.

11. Which TWO of the following are freedoms citizens and permanent residents of the UK should respect?

- Freedom of speech
- Half-day off work on Friday
- freedom from unfair discrimination
- Free heating during winter

There are responsibilities and freedoms which are shared by all those living in the UK and which all residents are expected to respect. The freedoms are: • freedom of belief and religion • freedom of speech • freedom from unfair discrimination • a right to a fair trial • a right to join in the election of a government.

12. In which TWO places are arrangements different for taking the Life in the UK Test?

- Scotland
- Northern Ireland
- Isle of Man
- Channel Islands

If you live on the Isle of Man or in the Channel Islands, there are different arrangements for taking the Life in the UK test.